

Gurrutxaga

Txakolina Bizkaiko 2007 Hondarribi Zuri

Spain > Basque Country >> Bizkaiko Txakolina

White, Dry, Light-Bodied, Mineral, Fresh

Regional wines are often best served with regional specialties. Try with classic Basque dishes such as Marmitako (potato and fish stew), salted codfish or Piperada (sweet pepper omelet).

Eyes: Pale Yellow-Green

Nose: Medium Intensity, youthful, melon, kiwi, red apple

Mouth: Light Bodied, dry, medium-high acidity, moderate intensity, mineral, lemon, pear, medium finish

Parker: N/A

Wine Spectator: N/A

WSJournal: N/A

NYTimes: N/A

Bottlerocket Index: 3

Produced in the autonomous Basque region, centered around the town of Bilbao on the north coast of Spain, Txakolina is an incredibly refreshing wine with an effervescent “spritz” that is the traditional accompaniment to tapas. Ideal with classics such as croquetas, boquerones or simply a bowl of olives.

*

NOTES:

HATED IT

NOT MY THING

OKAY

LIKED IT

LOVED IT